

Rev'd Julie Johnson

Rev'd Julie Johnson grew up in the green and pleasant land of her beloved Lincolnshire. She trained for lay ministry in the 1980s, being at that time a full-time single mother to two young boys.

In 1998, Julie was ordained and licensed to the three commuter-village parishes where she lived for almost 40 years before relocating to the urban sprawl of Stockport in 2007.

Now licensed as Assistant Priest in this Parish, she shares in various areas of public ministry and focuses in particular on pastoral care.

Happy to serve God and his people where she is able, Julie's primary reason for retiring to Stockport was in order to be a responsible and supportive grandmother.
